

Marylebone Mercury

EST 1857

MM 8269

Thursday, June 1, 1995

TEL: 0181 741 1622 30p

YOUR LOCAL PLUMBER

24hr Service

EST 1979
PIMLICO PLUMBERS
LTD

A REPUTATION TO MAINTAIN

0171 928 8888

First for news every week. It's the ONLY local newspaper you need.

EXCLUSIVE: QPR bid for Baggio

The CHRONICLE can exclusively reveal that QPR owner Richard Thompson has sanctioned a multi-million pound bid for Italy's World Cup star Roberto Baggio.

The Juventus player is known to be an admirer of QPR manager Ray Wilkins, who once plied his trade in Italy. The move would follow the imminent sale of Les Ferdinand. Full story, back page

German scouts return

● A group of German scouts who were the first to visit England after World War Two have been reunited with their hosts - 49 years later.

● The 8th Marylebone Scouts welcomed their visitors on Friday with a tea party.

● While the German scouts were flourishing, the 8th Marylebone are appealing for new members as their numbers, but not their spirits, have dwindled from 120 in 1951 to just six today. Photo: JAMES BEDFORD

FREE ADS

Sell up to six items at a time

- see page 28

or telephone

0181 563 8219

CHEERS!

WIN a case of summer wine

- see page 19

PLUS!

Twice as much LOCAL news.

Beware poor imitations!